

EXPRESS YOURSELF

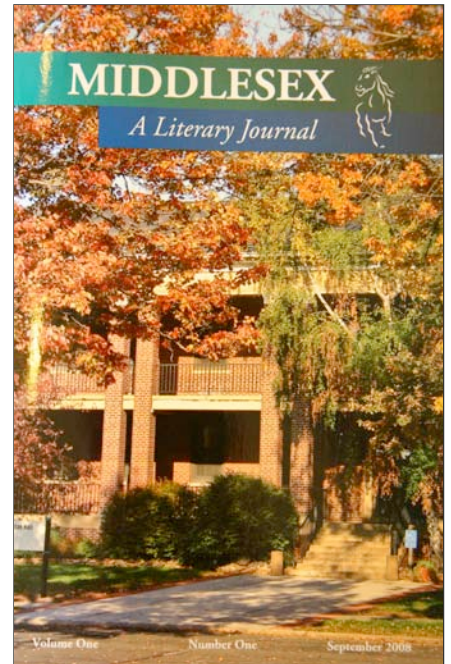

The Tri-State Writers' Workshop at Middlesex County College

Edison, NJ

Earn five Professional Development Credits

Friday, August 14, 2009
8:30 a.m.-3:25 p.m.

Sponsored by the Middlesex County
College Department of English, and the Alumni Association.

Learn tips from professionals on writing novels, plays, non-fiction, poetry, and how to get your work published.

Workshops

You will have a choice of five of these stimulating workshops throughout the day:

Writing and Selling Short Stories for Magazines, Professor Melissa Edwards

The Memoir, Professor Shirley Wachtel

The Power of Poetry, Hank Kalet, Editor of the South Brunswick Post

The Playwright's Craft: Script Writing,
Professor Ben Marshall

Writing Children's Literature,
Professor Shirley Wachtel

Haiku, Professor Mat Spano

Poetry Workshop/Critique, Professor Emanuel di Pasquale and Professor Dan Zimmerman (please send poetry in advance; details will be provided after registering)

Writing Poetry, Gail Gaspar

During the lunch break, attendees may take part in a "spoken word" contest, in which they rap poetry they have written. The winner will receive $200.

Schedule

8:30 a.m.	Registration & Coffee
9-9:50 a.m.	Session 1
10-10:50 a.m.	Session 2
11-11:50 a.m.	Session 3
Noon-1:15 p.m.	Interactive lunch with the presenters
1:15-2:05 p.m.	Session 4
2:15-3:05 p.m.	Session 5
3:10-3:25 p.m.	Wrap up

Express Yourself: The Tri-State Writers' Workshop at Middlesex County College is a fundraising event to support publication of the College's literary journal. All attendees will receive a copy of the journal when it is published. Of the $75 fee, $60 is a donation for tax purposes.

Express Yourself: The Tri-State Writers' Workshop at Middlesex County College

Registration Form

Name

Address

e-mail

Phone

Please return with your check for $75 ($80 if registering on the day of the conference) payable to the Middlesex County College Alumni Association to Linda Friedman, Chambers Hall, Middlesex County College, 2600 Woodbridge Ave., Edison, NJ 08818. If you are paying by purchase order, call 732-906-4250 for details.