Complete State Mandated Training by 1/02/10

"Any person in charge of a higher-risk food establishment must pass a nationally accredited food safety examination by January 2, 2010."

(New Jersey Food Safety Code, published on January 2, 2007)

ServSafe®

ServSafe® is a 16-hour course that provides an overview of basic sanitation policies and procedures that all food service managers, supervisors, owners and employees must follow. Topics include: the hazards that threaten food, basics of food safety systems: HACCP, methods of safe food handling, equipment cleaning, sanitizing and pest control.

The Institute at Middlesex County College provides the instruction, exam preparation, and test necessary to gain the ServSafe® certification that is recognized by more federal, state and local jurisdictions than any other food safety education and training program! Register for the scheduled sessions listed below or let us bring the training to you!
