

Course Abstract

If you need accommodations due to a disability, contact Disability Services in Edison Hall Room 100, 732.906.2546.

To foster a productive learning environment, the College requires that all students adhere to the Code of Student Conduct which is published in the college catalog and website.

Course ID and Name: COM 208 Communication Seminar and Field Experience

Department: Visual Performing Media Arts

Chairperson or Course Coordinator: Assistant Prof. Nadine Heller
Office Location: CC 341
E-mail Address: nheller@Middlesexcc.edu
Telephone: 732-906-2589

Prerequisites: Written permission of the department chairperson and Counseling and Career Services Office

Co-requisites: N/A

Course Description:

A cooperative program whereby the student may gain experience in a communication-related position in radio, television or public relations in order to gain some of the practical experience necessary for growth and success. Supervision of this departmentally approved position is provided by the College through on-the-job visits and individual progress review related to the position in order to effect the attainment of specific competencies. Students attend a bi-weekly two-hour seminar on campus and work a minimum of 180 hours per semester.

General Education Status:

Credits:	Lecture Hours:	Lab Hours:
3	1	12

Learning Outcomes:

1. Demonstrate the ability to participate effectively, individually and in teams, in a cooperative work experience program in a communication-related position in radio, television, or public relations.
2. Gain greater competency in field through practical hands-on work experience.
3. Acquire work experience which will lead to growth and success.